Dear jeffrey

The following is what my lawyer suggested I send to her then after that I revised it read both and give me your advise which should I send

Lawyer version

" Dear Debbie,

Do by attempt to contact me in any way including email, phone or in person. I have been advised that a US Federal warrant for your arrest has been issued and your case is now with the US Marshals Office for action. I am legally bound to assist them in any way I can and I will do so. Be advised that the specifics of any attempt to contact me will be sent immediately to my attorney who will notify the US Marshals Office and proper authorities for their disposition. Regards,"

My version

"Dear Debbie

Do by attempt to contact me in any way including email, phone or in person. I have been advised I am legally bound to assist them in any way I can.

Be advised that the specifics of any attempt to contact me I must immediately notify the US Marshals Office and proper authorities for their disposition. My lawyer has signed a statement on my behalf and sent it to your parole officer in Montana

Regards

Sultan
