[REDACTED] didn't want a surprise party with the girls so [REDACTED] and I just decided to surprise her today without anyone there. I decorated the kitchen so everyone is still present but she doesn't have to talk to them
I will have balloons ready in the morning and [REDACTED] is getting the food. Is he working during the day or can we do it for lunch at 12 ?

[REDACTED] sent a message last night saying the traffic was terrible because of the holiday so she wanted to drive back in the morning. I told her ok as long as she is in the office on time. When do you want her there ?

I love you.
