Don't trust the colours in the pictures. I will not give an opinion until I see it. What I remember seeing when inspected is that the colour was right. On the floors I'm still expecting the samples I ordered, they are more like an 18th century rustic european floors with much more interest than just distressed boards. I'm scheduling my trip to the island with Fancelli for the week of the 17th. As soon as I have more information I will let everyone know in advance. Also, very shortly after the visit I will have a proposal for the ceiling. Thanks, JP

I sent e-mail to Brice, Curtis and Doug asking if Molyneux has scheduled Island visit, provided any information regarding flooring. I also asked status of cabinetry. This is what Curtis sent me. Still waiting to hear from Doug and Brice. I speak to Brice today at 2PM on another matter, so I will follow up with him.

Has Molyneux responded to any of your e-mails that you copied me on? If not, I would like to contact him if ok with you. Thanks.

Darren
