Dear Jeffrey:

I have known Mark Green for some twenty years or so. Long enough that I don't even remember who introduced us. He has now once again decided to run for office, again for Public Advocate, a position he held with good heart, much energy, and a high level of dignity for two terms and eight years from 1994 to 2001. Thereafter he ran for Mayor, almost successfully had it not been for 9/11.

I have always admired (and been somewhat amazed) by the vigor of his drive for public service. And I have stayed friends with him in the periods he was out of office.

Now he wants to be back in office and, as a friend and admirer of his devotion to public service, I have overcome my feelings of "let the young guys do it" and concluded to support him again, not least because maybe he'll invite me for events at whatever mansion the city places at the Public Advocate's disposal. What? No mansion? Why on earth is he doing this?

Nonetheless, he is having a fundraiser at a comedy club the invitation to which I attach hereto. It asks you to give $175 and attend. That sounds like a trivial amount except that the first $175 that you raise in the city is matched by the city on a 6-to-1 basis. Accordingly, you are a $1,225 contributor when you give $175.

That can make you feel proud and him feel funded. Both of those are good. Perhaps it's also good to meet Mark on the 17th and laugh. No, no, not at him, but rather in response to the (I am told very good) comedians on the stage.

I'll be there and I hope you will as well. And if you can't, just send the money anyway.

All best wishes.

Sincerely yours,
