no worry, The foundation will check with the registrar at Cal tech, they know each other. I don't care one way or the other.

Well, his work on spatial imagery is great, but his own memory is pretty flawed. Oh well....

I have the correspondence from Kosslyn PRIOR to McIver writing him, where he was very interested in the case, and wanted to pursue it jointly. I was also corresponding with a post-doc in his lab. It was right then, that McIver struck, and brought a full-stop, and it was the "convicted felon" part, and other stuff, that sent Kosslyn running. A shame, truly, as I wanted to work with him on this case.

What's his number, i might give him a call and straighten this out. I have too many colleagues and friends at Harvard, and don't like this crap spreading like this, especially since it spreads falsehoods.

Read the declaration of Christof under oath.

My caltech ID.

McIver said all sorts of things, which is WHY I WON A LIBEL AND SLANDER CASE AGAINST HIM!!!!

he said he sent you a letter and suggested that you should not represent yourself as working with him . He said he never met you, he receives hundreds of emails and hands them off the post docs , or students. He does not know of you or your work . He said that it was his understanding that mcgyver said you were never really registered at caltech, , you had worked in labs , and were friends of the professors,, many people work at the labs , they all have ids to work at the labs, but have never been admitted , the only criterion that allows someone to say they studied at cal tech,Kosslyn is certain that they checked , and you were not officially registered , and had never been... that is his recollection.

ANYway, doesn't really matter. I know of his work, and it is quite good. I particularly liked the edited set he did on cognitive neuroscience for MIT Press. I am surprised he doesn't know of my work, as most people in the field do, and I was well known at Harvard a while back, having given enough talks there in the vision groups, and collaborated with enough people there.

I am on the phone with him . he says he does not know you. he was not in the audience.. he thinks you might have written him or one of his post-docs.. He knows for certain that he has never met you, nor does he know of your work

Kosslyn and I were in correspondence, and he was particularly interested in a case involving a unique patient that I discovered who had no mind's eye and no inner voice, and we wanted to run some studies on her, as he is particularly interested in spatial imagery. Soon after he was one of the people at Harvard who received all this crap from McIver (I know this for a fact) but Kosslyn misremembered who I was. Funny, I still have the correspondence between us.... He just misremembered, and then got confused that I was some sort of crank after receiving tons of crap from McIver. In fact, I think Kosslyn was in the audience when I gave an invited talk at Patrick Cavanaugh's class at Harvard.

Christof,

It is perfectly acceptable, and it should be on your Caltech letterhead and then it needs to be notarized.

Hopefully, this will end this horror. This document will not be used for any other purpose than as a confidential document to be seen by the judge and opposing counsel and the defendant Tom McIver.

It specifically is addressing points that McIver has disputed.

I will see you at 9:30.

Very appreciatively,
Al
