Jeffrey,

I am trying to finalize an invoice with Tracy at our insurance office regarding car insurance for the vehicles that where in my name last year, that included: Mercedes convertible , Range Rover, Jaguar and St. Thomas White Suburban., since most where sold after the renewal by a month and Half, I still owe Tracy some insurance on these cars, Since then I had purchased a 2006 mustang for Brooke and 2007 VW beetle for Taylor this year, that was added to the policy,

I have always paid for my personal car insurance separately not to confuse them with my payments of the company vehicles that where in my name, with all the adds / deletions and overlap of renewal, it became very confusing to put an exact cost of each vehicle according to Tracy.

May I ask you for assistance and approval, I owe Tracy $6,320.48 which will pay all my car insurance till June 2011. As you see in Tracy's email, she only estimated that company cars for that time would have been $519.00 only. this will start a clean slate regarding what is owed for my car insurance in the future.

Sincerely,

Larry

Jeffrey,

just a personal note, the reason I purchased a car for [REDACTED] this year for her 16th birthday, she's having a tough time at school with friends, no one is able to sleep over our house, and [REDACTED] had invited two friends to visit her at the ranch this summer, one parent bluntly said no, and blamed my employment,. I know this is not your problem, personally I don't care what over parents say about me. but wanted to share it with you, she has one more year of high school remaining, then she's off to collage, then I contemplate moving,. thank you again,
Larry

Hi Larry,

Okay, I will do my best. Because there were so many changes to the policy with adding, removing and replacing cars it became a little complicated.

For the couple plus months that the '05 Mercedes CLK, '08 Land Rover, '05 Jaguar X-Type and '99 Chevy Suburban were insured, the best I could calculate is owed would be $519.00

Currently, the balance still due for your auto policy is $6,320.48

If you should need any additional information, please let me know.

Kindest Regards,

Tracy Penwell
