Buyers response is below, when he refers to offered to him, I discussed this with Larry, someone you were speaking to about a G5 put it on the street that this could be bought for 12.1m It is a good offer but your call. PERHAPS I can get Sikorsky to do something about refunds or credits on the extra training and warranty you have above the standard delivery which will go to the buyer...no guarantees but I will certainly try for you. Please advise so I can make this deal happen for you.
