Eye contact is another weird one. Staring etc. There's something about that too. Feels like a more special sense than just vision.

Forfeit if a valid complaint arises unworkable. University can't investigate complaints once I am retired. Or do you mean valid complaint of past behavior?

I am redoing document without details of retirement in there. To be negotiated when we meet.

I would love you on phone when meeting but don't believe I can have an advisor in that meeting.

It is not a touchy feely feel good session. No confessions. I think we are both aware of two things. 1. The university does not have an airtight case for dismissal. 2. It is clear that I am no longer welcome. He will say , no you are welcome . Of course you are. . to take away your leverage. It is not real

Let's hope it is an inflection point and not a mudslide. :)

My bet is he won't say I am welcome. If you can bet this won't be feel good session. I will start off cordial but aim to convince them they will be getting off easy with everything I want.

I am betting he will start by saying that I deserve dismissal but they want to be kind and let me resign.

My bet is he won't say I am welcome. If you can bet this won't be feel good session. I will start off cordial but aim to convince them they will be getting off easy with everything I want.

I am certain , that you do not have the legal grounds for dismissal . But I am also certain that you greatly prefer that I no longer teach here.
