Dear Terje, I just want to inform you that things here got an unexpected twist. Our parliament will vote on the Migration compact next week. I insist on going to Marrakech and make a statement defining our red lights. They want to prevent me from going and for Slovakia to withdraw completely. I said publicly if this will be decided I will consider resignation. And right now I think that my resignation is quite likely. Especially if my party supports this parliamentary initiative, because that would be a kind of no-confidence vote for me.

I think that's the only thing I can do if I want to preserve my professional and personal integrity.

Best, Miro

Dear Miro, am convinced you are doing the right thing. And whatever happens, I will support you, and I know our friend J will do the same with all his tools. I have taken the liberty of forwarding your SMS to him. And here is the message to you from J and me: If you leave your job, I will immediately offer you to be non-resident fellow at IPI (which means you can stay in Bratislava if you want, if you want to be in nyc you can of course be a resident fellow). Remuneration for your job will be taken care of. I'm currently in Riyadh. If there is anything I can do, do not hesitate to call. Good luck! Warmest, Terje

Im not surprised. , I think your position is just. It is the explanation of it that needs tailoring. Ie Not on the table youre on the menu, is too flippant . You know your country. It wants to appear strong. Hiding from attending engenders the opposite I think you can make a great case that attending strengthens the country s hand. Hiding , running away from the issue , shows weakness and brings more trouble. .

Pleasure exhausts it's own energy
Need to dream a new dream
The future is not in the intergalactic space but in the space between our own thoughts
We need new raw materials for imagination
I'm invited by TH Chan to speak at MIT early Dec to spend a day discussing dreaming a new reality !
Open to all possibilities and reinforced in the notion that there is never a point of arrival except NOW

“I think Europe needs to get a handle on migration because that is what lit the flame,” Clinton said regarding the rise of rightwing populists like Hungary’s Viktor Orbán.

Clinton added: “I admire the very generous and compassionate approaches that were taken particularly by leaders like Angela Merkel, but I think it is fair to say Europe has done its part, and must send a very clear message – ‘we are not going to be able to continue provide refuge and support’ – because if we don’t deal with the migration issue it will continue to roil the body politic.”
