I will tell him no again. If I said yes, they would not announce the party candidate. But the real deadline is February 7. And if I decided to run, I would be labeled as the party candidate. Now they will have to cope with my no and I still have time to make my independent decision in February.

I still don't think I will run - unless there is a wide demand (as there was a wide demand for me to stay as Foreign minister).
