cognitive latency and buffering, . Not very well understood. I think that the delay in perception from input explains deja vu. The input went to memory first.

No wants. Sodium doesn't "want" to combine with chlorine

Sodium is a name given by scientists to a mode of knowing in consciousness . It's as much a human construct as body mind universe - useful construct

Reality is that which wants to know and which creates all constructs - that which we call "I"

We are bamboozled by our own constructs

There are no things !

Everything you see including the body brain and world is the interpretation of colorless light in formless consciousness .

The body mind is not the container of awareness but an experience in awareness
