they are all sympathetic it looks like, but apparently their mandate is not to ask questions or even convince dean that dismissal is not warranted. They can just ask Dean if he has any middle ground, and then ask me, and if it looks like there is no possible convergence then they do a report on it. She said she wasn't sure it was even worth my coming down.. but she did suggest to the committee they meet with the Dean first to see if anything was possible. She was bummed out that their job wasn't to assess and judge.. so not sure why they even have the materials.. Anyway, she figures Dean won't take any middle ground that doesn't involve dismissal.. We can talk tomorrow.

I haven't forwarded anything on to Justin, including note from the Provost, or info about the meeting, as I don't see any role for him at the moment.

When I am there, I can ask to have a joint meeting I suppose. But they get to decide if they think it will be worthwhile.

As I thought ! Justin should never have allowed you to Send the 24 page appeal . It was only to make money. It should have bern held back for the hearing phase

It was impossible to move the dinner (in my honor) on Friday, so I'll come on Saturday. (I have lunches and dinners organized for me every day for two weeks now...)
I'm totally flexible on Saturday, just say what time.

Here is your sept 9 email: I am writing this as part of the concilation process. The following is abundantly clear to me . The Unviersity does not have sufficient grounds under the law (both current and proposed) to i dismiss me given all the facts. 2 I am no longer welcome at ASU. 3, The unversity has taken steps outside of the normal process which has caused me serious reputational and financial damage. 4 . I intend to pursue all my legal options to fully recover those damages. .5. I would , in the spirit of cooperation be open to a fair resolution . thnx also above.. you wrote: "Can she suggest to the committee that you sit with dean and them"... so my strategy was to do as you said in the 5 items above.. depending upon what you think #5 should be.. in the first meeting on wed the 26th and then request a second meeting with the committee and the dean whatever he tells them when he meets with the committee.. and that meeting would be on sept 28. That is what I wanted to ask you.. if that strategy seems sound..

and finally, since we began our conversation with this.. regarding Moonves.. since it is clear they violated the ABOR regs and my rights by putting me on administrative leave and not allowing me to appeal that.. do we save that for the next hearing, or wait till I am officially fired, and we go to the Arizona Appeals court, or wait till they also fire me and we commence a lawsuit? I wanted to ask you about that strategy too.

I understand I have exhausted your patience and rightly so. I just wish we could talk for 5 min before tomorrow because I have to give the university the times I am available and right now Kimberley is urging the committee to meet with the dean first. Should I go along with this, in which case the questions they may ask me will be different, or should I try to meet with them first and then indicate my willingness to meet with them and the dean after they meet with him? That was going to be the point of my call till we got sidetracked.

Also when I talk to Justin tomorrow about the bill I do not intend to tell him anything about the conciliation or the provosts letter back to me, or more importantly, about the leave with pay issue that he actually should have discovered but which in any case, especially after the point you made about moonves, is pretty important for later down the road. Agreed?
