GRANTING A PARDON TO WILLIS TODMAN

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE UNITED STATES VIRGIN ISLANDS

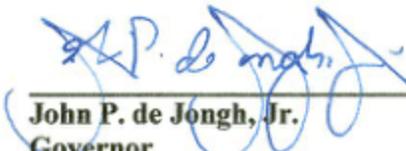

Willis Todman was born [REDACTED]. He was educated in St. Thomas, graduating from Charlotte Amalie High School and the University of the Virgin Islands. He worked with the Government of the Virgin Islands for twenty-seven years, rising to become the Administrator of the Government Employees Retirement System. He was charged with Fraud, Grand Larceny and Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses in the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands and on October 18, 2011 he was convicted in Case Number ST-08-CR-044, and sentenced to five (5) years incarceration.

Prior to his conviction, his contributions to the community were significant and were the basis for numerous community awards. Additionally, numerous letters of support from members of this community demonstrate his contributions and positive impact. Taking together the facts and circumstances of the underlying conduct of the offense charged, and the fact that Willis Todman had no prior criminal history, the issuance of a pardon is warranted.

NOW, THEREFORE, by the powers vested in me by Section 11 of the Revised Organic Act of 1954, as amended, and for the aforementioned reasons, I, John P. de Jongh, Jr., Governor of the United States Virgin Islands, have granted and by these presents do grant a full, free, and absolute pardon unto Willis C. Todman for his conviction in Case No. ST-08-CR-044 in the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands, judgment having been entered on October 18, 2011, and hereby restore his civil rights in all respects. The Bureau of Corrections is directed to release Willis Todman from custody forthwith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this instrument and caused the seal of the Government of the Virgin Islands to be affixed this 31st day of December, 2014,

John P. de Jongh, Jr.
Governor

GRANTING A COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE TO HENRY CURTIS SAMPSON

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE UNITED STATES VIRGIN ISLANDS

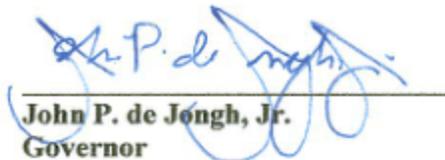

Henry Curtis Sampson was born on [REDACTED] On May 5, 1996, he was convicted in the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands of the crime of Murder in the First Degree. He was sentenced to life in prison, and currently resides at the Golden Grove Adult Correctional Facility on the island of St. Croix.

Henry Curtis Sampson is in the end stages of a terminal illness. In the spirit of mercy for the dying, it is appropriate to grant him a commutation of his sentence to the thirty-five (35) years he has already served in payment for his crime.

NOW, THEREFORE, by the powers vested in me by Section 11 of the Revised Organic Act of 1954, as amended, and for the aforementioned reasons, I, John P. de Jongh, Jr., Governor of the United States Virgin Islands, have granted and by these presents do grant a commutation of the sentence to Henry Curtis Sampson to time served. The Bureau of Corrections is directed to release Henry Curtis Sampson forthwith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this instrument and caused the seal of the Government of the Virgin Islands to be affixed this 31st day of December, 2014, A.D.

GRANTING A PARDON TO ORVILLE A. BERGAN

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE UNITED STATES VIRGIN ISLANDS

On May 18, 1999, Orville A. Bergan was convicted in the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands of Third Degree Assault and Aggravated Assault and Battery, Case No. F461/1996. On December 30, 2006, he was pardoned of those offenses by Governor Charles W. Turnbull. However, due to an inadvertent error, Orville A. Bergan's name did not appear in the body of the Pardon document.

I concur with the decision to extend an Executive Pardon to Orville A. Bergan for his conviction described above and, taking together the facts and circumstances of the underlying offense charged, the issuance of a pardon to correct the errors of the pardon previously granted, is warranted.

NOW, THEREFORE, by the powers vested in me by Section 11 of the Revised Organic Act of 1954, as amended, and for the aforementioned reasons, I, John P. de Jongh, Jr., Governor of the United States Virgin Islands, have granted and by these presents do grant a full, free, and absolute pardon unto Orville A. Bergan for the crime of Assault in the Third Degree, of which he was convicted in Superior Court Case No. F461/1996 on May 18, 1996, and hereby restore his civil rights in all respects.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this instrument and caused the seal of the Government of the Virgin Islands to be affixed this 31st day of December, 2014, A.D.
