Terms of sale

All of the property sold to and purchased by the invoiced party as purchaser is subject to the Conditions of Sale and Terms of Guarantee, if any, printed in the catalogue for the sale. The invoiced amount includes the buyer's premium in effect on the date of the sale, which is added to the hammer price for each lot as part of the total purchase price.

Payment

Payment is due immediately after the sale. It is Sotheby's policy to accept payment only from the buyer named on the invoice. We reserve the right to decline payments received from anyone other than the invoiced party. Payment can be made by the following methods:

- Sotheby's accepts payment by credit card for Visa, MasterCard, and American Express only. Credit card payments may not exceed $50,000 per sale. Payment by credit card may be made (a) online at www.sothebys.com/en/invoice-payment.html, (b) by calling Post Sale Services at +1 212 606 7444, or (c) in person at Sotheby's premises at the address noted above.
- Wire/ Bank transfer in US Dollars
- Personal, certified, banker's draft and cashier's checks drawn in US Dollars (made payable to Sotheby's)
- Cash (subject to a maximum of 10,000 USD)

Whilst personal and company checks (drawn in US Dollars) are accepted, property will not be released until such checks have cleared, unless you have a pre-arranged check acceptance agreement (the application form is available from Post Sale Services).

Bank transfers should be sent to:

JP Morgan Chase Bank NA, 726 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10004
Account name	Sotheby's Inc.
Account number	865356836
ABA routing number	021000021
SWIFT code	CHASUS33

Please instruct your bank to include your name, Sotheby's account number and invoice number

Sales and use tax

New York sales tax is charged on the hammer price, buyer's premium and any other applicable charges on any property picked up or delivered in New York State, regardless of the state or country where the purchaser resides or does business. Purchasers who wish to use their own shipper who is not a considered a "common carrier" by the New York Department of Taxation and Finance will be charged New York sales tax on the entire charge regardless of the destination of the property. Please refer to "Information on Sales and Use Tax Related to Purchases at Auction" in the back of the catalogue.

Liability for loss or damage

Unless otherwise agreed by Sotheby's, all purchased property must be removed from our premises by the purchaser at his expense no later than 30 calendar days following the sale of the property. Buyers at auction are reminded that under Sotheby's Conditions of Sale Sotheby's liability for loss or damage for uncollected property ceases 30 calendar days after the date of the auction.

Request for identification

Sotheby's requires all clients to present government-issued identification to confirm their identity. Individual clients are requested to provide a copy of a passport, driver's license or other government-issued identification card containing a photograph and address. Corporate clients are requested to provide a copy of a Certificate of Incorporation or other government-issued document indicating the bona fide existence of the corporation, as well as proof of the individual's authority to act on behalf of the corporation. If you have any questions about the appropriate type of identification document, please contact Post Sale Services.

Shipping services

Sotheby's offers a comprehensive shipping service. If you received a shipping quote or have any questions about the services we offer, please contact Post Sale Services.

Exporting property

The export of certain property from the US or import into any other country may be subject to one or more export or import requirements or restrictions. It is the buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any necessary export, import, firearm, endangered species or other permits or licenses. The denial of any license or delay in obtaining such license shall not justify cancellation or rescission of the sale or any delay in payment.

If you require any further information about the export of your property, please contact Post Sale Services.

Collection

In order to collect your property the following is required:

- Your payment in full (including any interest, handling and storage charges due) must be received and cleared.
- The person collecting must present valid identification as noted in "Request for identification".
- You must provide written authorization for anyone collecting on your behalf. Please include the person's full name and the property to be collected.
