I could not respond to your e-mail, the system kept crashing.

Do not bite your tongue. Tell Chris and Lily exactly what happened. Chris is reasonable and fair. This guy is a child molesting spoiled billionaire. He is used to bossing everyone around and getting what he wants and he does not like to be put in his place. Lily must know him very well, I am sure she has seen this before. Together the three of you can come up with a game plan. I am happy to help in any way, you can let them know that too.

The rodeo thing is funny and very correct. You are not some junior bush league lawyer who needs to be told how to set a hearing.
