I was working as a fashion model for past 7 years worldwide. With such companies, as Wilhelmina, NY
Agency Presse, Tokyo
Aquarelle models, Moscow
Elite, China
Fashion Model Management, Taiwan
and many more. I have a lot of experience in fashion and commercial industries including knowledges of different fashion markets around the globe. Besides that, I have much of interest in print and media platforms.

I'm very creative person. My strongest quality I believe is mobility and ability to adapt to any kind of social environment. I easy find friends and build connection with people. I'm very responsible person, very accurate and precise. I really like to study and learn new things. I can learn a lot and quickly. I never get frustrated in a stressful situation and thinking about solution for a problem not about problem itself. I am very well organized and very punctual person therefore I also have good skills in organizing and management. That's something I really like to do. I like to organize events, trips, celebrations, parties with my friends or for work.

I'm really well with technologies and have no problems working with a computer. I am train to work with Microsoft Office software, as well as Apple.

I'm always keeping myself updated with everything what happening around the world in fashion industry, media , cinematography .

I'm fluent in English and Russian is my native language.

My hobbies:

I got a degree in psychology because I'm fascinated with the way human mind works. I really like to research on relationships and personal growth. My favorite area of psychology is a personal concealing. I am glad I got a degree in it. It is really helping me in my current field.

I do like art and music.

I do paint a little myself and have a musical school diploma. I am a piano player.

I am trying to keep updated with what happening in art world and currently educating myself more about it.

I do like to travel a lot and especially finding about new cultures and languages that is truly my passion.

Another passion is a beauty industry. I really like everything about body and face care. I am currently learning about cosmetology and aesthetics industry a lot.
