Re: Carol S. Chomsky Marital Trusts

Dear Mr. Kahn,

As you may know, I represent Harry Chomsky in his capacity as a co-trustee of the Marital Trusts created under the Carol S. Chomsky Revocable Trust (the "Trust"). I understand that on behalf of Noam Chomsky you have been in touch with Max Kohlenberg to discuss various issues related to the administration of the Trust. Specifically, I am aware that you have made a request for a distribution to Noam to make certain tax payments and that you have proposed changes to the administration of the Trust so that Noam may have greater access to the Trust funds. Harry is committed to fulfilling his fiduciary obligations to the beneficiaries and will, together with Max, gladly consider your requests. However, to make an informed decision Harry must be included in your ongoing dialogue with Max. Please send to me any documents that you have already provided to Max to aid him in considering your requests. Going forward, please make sure to include me on any correspondence concerning the Trust and its administration. In addition, if Noam has retained an attorney to whom I should be directing this communication, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Jillian B. Hirsch
