Personal & Confidential

Dear Mr. Epstein:

I have attempted several times to reach you in person and through your lawyer, Jack Goldberger. I am sending this letter to your homes in Palm Beach and Manhattan to give you an opportunity to comment for a series of stories, as well as a documentary, we are producing about you.

As part of this project, we have identified more than 60 women, and interviewed four, who allege they were molested by you when they were teenagers, under the age of consent in Florida. We have also reviewed thousands of court documents, witness testimony and discovery to put together this series, which primarily focuses on the failings of the criminal justice system as it relates to your case.

I have also poured over hundreds of stories about you, some of which included interviews with you directly and others who know you. As you are aware, many of those stories -- as well as several lawsuits -- allege that you, Ghislaine Maxwell and others -- were involved in a much larger sex-trafficking operation.

I am offering you the opportunity to discuss anything you like related to the allegations that have been made in the media against you over the past decade. An interview would help provide balance to my story. In lieu of speaking to you directly, I am willing to speak to anyone you designate, should it be a lawyer or someone else.

This story is scheduled to run sometime in the next few weeks, so it is important that, if you want to contribute, that you respond in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

Julie K. Brown
