Dear Jeff –

Attached is the proposed transmittal letter to the Legislature from the Governor. I tried to draft it as a mostly “political” document, as opposed to the Explanation section of the bill itself which is more technical and “explanatory.” Please give me any comments.

Please note that I have not yet included the repatriation provisions in the letter because (1) I have not drafted them yet, and (2) I am unsure of how you think the Governor will want to handle that issue politically.

I have also attached a slightly revised version of the legislation itself. There are no substantive differences from version 7 which I sent you last week. The changes are in the Explanation section regarding section 1423 (taxation of statutory trusts – pp. 45-47) and in the name of bill (I changed 2016 to 2017 in the title). By the way, my thought about how to draft the repatriation provisions is to establish a special type of statutory trust that requires a very large capital investment, the 25 employees we talked about, and the requirement that the trust and its assets remain in the USVI for a minimum period of time, etc.

Bill
