thinner lines . more delicate

..image no1..something like this, and somehow same design on the other wall where the sink is. on sides walls could be horizontal blue lines.. same strong blue like at the entrance

or image no2 with a oblique squares design.. could be done with black or blue..same like at the entrance.., and i was thinking the cabinets under the sink could be blue or magenta. then on the opposite wall, we can put some orange..so you see thru the door the strong blue in the entrance room..

i think better if you are in the room to visualize it..

i dont know.., what do you think?

hi jeffrey,

..i didn't know that you had to leave saturday..

i finished painting black the crown molding in chillax room..

i have some ideas for chillax bathroom.. i'll show you when you get back..better if you are here, then we can think it together.

is it ok if tomorrow i will work on gsj at lavender bedroom's bathroom? i was thinking for that doing some horizontal one foot(maybe less) wide lines. same lavender color.. a little darker maybe. so then will be horizontal lines.. white and lavender..

in lavender bedroom i have to do also closet's doors, and the ceiling. i will put some sample on the ceiling too..
