Started talking to Joy again, the owner wasn't in Brazil when I was there. It may be a better option, less overhead than Ford and I agree with you that the numbers don't seem right. Also while talking to Joy they informed me that Ford has some unpaid debts (mostly tax and severance pay related).

Looks like I'm moving forward with L'official, so I think it would be a good idea to look further into Joy. They were my first option actually, and easy people to work with. One of the co-owners took me for lunch while in SP, with her daughter, very friendly, etc, but no numbers were discussed, so I assumed they weren't interested in selling. After speaking with the main owner it seems that they are not desperate to sell but would be open to talking, maybe selling half or more of the agency? Should I ask them for an NDA and try to get some numbers?
