He thought he was safe with a 15-year-old over the Internet? Something he was caught doing many times or at least twice before? It doesn't make any sense. Guess what Woody and I talked about on our walk home. I got to the bottom of the women. I'm not good at letting things go. Woody has a very hard life with me. Let's just say Woody is a smooth talker so he can get himself out of anything.

I know. It's an incredible story. You have to feel sorry for him. He can't seem to learn. Most importantly I feel sorry for his wife. I also thought it was disgusting what the 15-year-old did to him.

I hate women who take advantage of guys and she is definitely one of them. She knew exactly what she was doing and how vulnerable Wiener was and she reeled him in like fish to bait. It's also laughable when she says in her letter that she is putting it out there to help him. How does it help him? It only humiliates him. We know his excuse that he has a sickness. What is her excuse for being a despicable and disgusting person who preys on the weak? We know he's sick but she's also sick to have done this to him. So manipulative on her part. She should be ashamed of herself.
