She has not yet responded on where she will go once released.

Just finished my nuclear stress test and should have results tonight however doctor was not concerned.

I Will be in office around 2pm.

Thanks for your email.

Good luck with your [REDACTED] today. Where will you go when they send you home. I would love to understand your appointment for next week and your next steps. Please continue to be strong... I am here for whatever you need and would like to see you again on Monday.
