From: "jeffrey E." <jeevacation@gmail.com>
To: Danny Hillis < ████████████████ >
Subject:
Date: Mon, 25 Jul 2016 11:05:56 +0000

I loved your bell demonstration.   I know little about computers.   the bell reminds me that each frequency is processed parallel to the other.   like two separate notes   , but it is their instantaneous interaction that produces the result.   is there an analogy in computation where multiple sets of ones and zeros create a vertical harmony. as well is indvidual outputs that are later combined.

--
     please note