I was thinking of sending the letter to PR as well and I will go ahead and do that. We keep telling them that we are going to sue but have not commenced with it. Diaz has not responded to my email either directly or through Jeffers. I don't think that calling Diaz everyday to try to speak with him about what was told to Jeffers, his son and to him via email (and now a letter) will do any good.

With warm regards,

Cecile

should we also send to puerto rico as sending to address where jeffers will not be for 3 weeks will not help us receive a response did diaz ever respond to your email?
should you also have daphne call daily to get diaz on phone so you can have a conversation with him?

i am concerned with current steps this is going to drag out very slowly please let me know your thoughts
thanks

FYI - I asked JE again how he would like the letter delivered given the fact that Diaz is in PR and Jeffers is on STX for the next few weeks. He said to sent it via certified mail. It has gone by certified mail to the STT office this morning.

With warm regards,

Cecile
