I'm really good friend with his son and his mother (mick's ex wife) has stage 4 cancer. We were together in the countryside this weekend and I was wondering if there was any solution to cure her. I was really sad about her situation and it made me reflect so much about life and how lucky I am to be healthy. Sometimes you take it for granted but when you see people fighting so much with a desease, having a death sentence knocking at the door you realise how every single day is a gift.
