I am in London. Actually Ginge Manor for Sunday and sleeping over. Ginge (aka. "Cringe" Manor is the home of Lord and Lady Astor. Annabel is the mother of Sam Cam.

England is in morning over their stupidity. Old people voted to keep migrants out without a clear agenda of exactly who or how. Everyone got screwed. Brits are so ga-ga over this miscalculation that they think the Donald will get in.

I have the papers with me about my will. I am having reservations about two accountants having power over my money for Mattie. They are strangers. I am thinking of leaving my money to her with stipulations that it can not be touched by any future spouses, only natural born children. If my brother outlives me and she gives it to him, he will always be desperately broke and I don't care. I am dead. Mattie will not have control over her money....how do I know two accountants can't steal it from her. I am surrounded by stupid relatives...but they are blood. The accountants mean nothing to me, except being very helpful while I am alive.

Can I call you next week. Cell phones at Ginge not great. In London to Friday, July 1 then to Capri till July 6.
How are you?
xoxo Peg
