I don't think it is correct. She always asks first. You have a card for your personal expenses. Doctor is your expense . If you need your credit increased talk to JE, but you can't just decide what to do on your own. This card is strictly for work.

Thank you,

Bella

Ok , I'll talk to JE .

I asked [REDACTED] which card she's using for Doctor expenses and she said blue card . That's why I used it . I thought it would be easy because then you don't have to transfer money back to my card.

[REDACTED],
I can accept Hamptons expenses as JE and taxis, but your medical, pharmacy and others- you have a personal card for it. I made it very clear that this Amex is only for JE expenses. Please reimburse JE for your personal expenses. You can't use his Amex to increase your personal limit. Please discuss with JE

Thank you,

Bella
