I a returning to new york today, after supporting you and your ideas for years. and putting you through school, ask yourself if you have ever written me a thank you note. The idea that you would bring someone I told you clearly that i do not trust, into my inner circle. putting me at risk and then posture, " then ok, i will move out" was disgraceful. I expect you to find out all you can about hardship exemption from your school. I expet that your wife will fill out the forms that you require. I expect that you and I will have a conversation to discuss all of the above. dont worry , I will not leave you, but I am very very annoyed -- very
