glad to see you are on the mend as much as the fence. -- we should address the issue of what you would like moving forward. You and I agreed last year, no more money, no more work, no more free" after care" . however I ve done quite a lot this year already , but thats both my treat and my problem. As you like to remind me- youve paid a great deal of money to date. that being said - If you want my involvment moving foward, you can pay my normal fee of 40 m . 20 now . 20 on completion or as per the invoice last year pay 30 now. I will consider taking it, in real estate (Miami), ,art or . a financing of my new plane (fee spread over years) or cash. accounting re done. , office downsized, reporting re done. meeting to recitify categorize the various docs re appollo , rowen , suydam, alan etc. . IF you decide not to pay I fully understand, as I m sure you will re my no longer dealing with your office.

Hi Jeffrey—Just so we are all on the same page. I am putting together the binders you asked for with all the estate planning documents that will include (i) the document summary (ii) full document and (iii) the balance sheet. What we are asking is whether the format of the balance sheets we attached as Appendix C of the Estate Overview (and which Joe attached to his email) is adequate for purposes of the estate document binders.

Thanks.

-Ada

Jeffrey,

Ada is compiling the Estate fire drill information for you. Included therein is the information for each entity in the format attached hereto (summarizing the balance sheets) which ties into the estate flow. I want to check and make sure that this is sufficient for your purposes.

Please advise,

Thank you

Joe
