I LOVE !! the idea of a disruptive financial initiative. tomorrow I am meeting at MIT with the disruption and innovation of the financial system grad students. some of who were with PayPal, . electronic transfer, some from facebook, , same. . crowd sourcing and crypto currencies, I must admit I never thought that you would consider being a financial maverick. I missed it, (shame on me) it is perfect. exciting, interesting young minds, you could have a truly great time, We should also consider a Rothschild DONOR ADVISED FUND in the states. I can have Gates join. etc. it would will have billions under mgmt quickly, ill explain when i see you. Your family helped to start the "banking system ", only appropriate that it help end it, and form a new paradigm for financial transactions . store of value vs peer to peer lending transfers etc.

re Kathy call, you and I hate most of the people around each of us, . 1 you do not need or want and investment bank their main role would be to put a package together to go out and find the best buyer, you neither want or need that. (Any buyer is already known to either me or you). 2 , they would direct the lawyers. . (same , our concern here is personal first. the investment banks focus would be the cos. 3. they do not work on success fees, and charge outrageous fees along the way, 4. their goal is a fair transaction, our goal is the best price for you. 5 they are usually inexperienced with taxes of trusts estates etc. . 6 , they hire the same people we / I would hire.
