It was good but I was pretty tired from studying. Most importantly [REDACTED] looked like she was having a lovely time.

I am still seeing conti and he has helped me a lot :) just always concerned about the price of him. He comes every 2/3 weeks.

I have spring break from Friday for 10 days.

Summer vacation in May for 3 months. I am applying for internships so that I will have some work, but that can be sorted around whether you need me. Thought it best to apply anyway.

Back at school in fall and finish either fall or next spring. If I do go onto next spring will be for only a couple classes so would be able to do an internship as well.

I also saw Rosenwaks for egg freezing. He said I should do it and possibly should have 2 years ago. He is incredible.

I understand completely. Maybe it will be less stress for you. And less risk. I'll move in with you. Just joking... I will have to find something.
