My father is still dying. Slowly. They are saying it's weeks not days and not months. The final draft of the settlement agreement between sandi and my was delivered yesterday. I hate the shit hole in which I am living, and I hope to be able to move back into my place 6/1. Until then I have to continue to tough it out. I return to nyc tonight after the full mass for Conxita. Are you there? Thank you so very, very much for the contribution to The Pudding. You are always exceedingly generous and it means a great deal to me personally.
