Hey Larry,

I heard from them and the owner won't release the plane. I apologize for the inconvenience and I don't know why they quoted it in the first place. I did find a cheaper Platinum rated Hawker 400XP if that interests you guys. Please let me know what you think. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best,
Chris

Hey Richard,

I apologize for the delay! I have been going back and forth with the operator because the jet's owner will not give clearance for this trip due to them potentially needing the jet. I told them I needed to know asap, but I guess they are having trouble pushing their owner. I am re-checking on the additional options to make sure they are still available. I will get back to you asap!

Best,
Chris

Hey Richard,

I wanted to follow up and confirm you received the options from earlier! We received some lower priced options but they were Gold safety rated. I believe you guys usually only want Platinum, correct? Below is an options for the trip to St. Thomas:

Option: Lear 60 = $20,392.89
- Platinum Safety rated

Let me know if you have any feedback!

Best,
Chris
