Better not to mention my name at first, ideally I'd like to have a chance encounter with her at your place and explain to her why the relationship ended. As I mentioned her friend doesn't speak very highly of me and I'm afraid she will believe her since they're pretty good friends. The real reason I broke up w her is because she stunk! Nobody knows that, not even her, she just noticed me losing interest and I know it hurt her, but what to do?

You are amazing Jeffrey...and I will more than make it up to you. I'm dating one dishonest girl after another and I really think I would hit it off with Anna, she's a straight forward person with a great heart. The only issue is that she may still be dating a youngish French guy (30 I think?). But he plays poker with his friends while she sits home by the phone, so I'm hoping she will understand the alternative I'm offering her. My ex is Anastasija Kond. We don't talk, so I'm worried things could backfire if her name is mentioned or if Anna speaks w her, because from what I understand she doesn't say nice things about me and I'm concerned that Anna would believe her seeing as they have been friends for years.

Hi Jeffrey,

Can I ask you a favor? I'm really interested in Anna Laryn, I've always thought she was a nice girl, but she's friends with my ex so it's a bit tricky. If you recall my ex is the blonde girl, you were telling her that Anna "has no guile", and you asked me to explain to her what guile meant. I was wondering if you would you be willing to invite Anna over sometime and tell her that you want to introduce her to a friend (or whatever you want to tell her)? I'd like to talk to her but if I contact her directly it could backfire because she's friends w my ex.

I really like this girl - precisely because she has no guile, something I need in my life now. If you help me with this I will more than make it up to you. As a tentative suggestion I would be willing to take a scouting trip to Europe for you, or something along those lines. Would be willing to discuss all, suffice to say that I would reciprocate with lots of time and energy.

Otherwise hope all is well. Book was just published!

Ramsey
