Jeffrey

I have designed a pair of armchairs for the sides and your guests in the main living room in Paris, and I am not very sure if it will bring really something different, these armchairs are reproductions in a few examples from Hiquily chairs designed in the 70's, he is an old man now, a good sculptor but will not work anymore, I always have liked his work, he has made only 2 original ones in the past, they are comfortable and I would be happy to buy a pair (80.000 €), the cow skin can be different, and white will be the best I think.

Do you like the idea ?
