You're absolutely right. I should never have written that to you.

I always want to make you happy, what do you need? In my own way I feel like I'm always looking out for things that might make you happy,

I just bought you a yummy hot water bottle, I sent you a totally inappropriate picture on V day because I felt it would make you smile, if you're doing a project I spend time looking for images that can help support your vision, I bring you ice cream, I don't quite know what else I can give you that is within my means that you would actually want at this stage.
