Larry,

I just got off the phone with Caroline in LFPB and she has advised that due to the NOTAM (A0290/16), the runway has work in progress from 2100z until 0500z. During this time, there is no departures or arrivals. You would need to revise your schedule and ensure that you did not land after 2100z for the 24th. Please let us know how you would like to proceed ASAP!

2200 local until 0600 local

Kindest Regards,

Katherine Scheer-Perry
