Something for you to consider...

Yes, we joke about it, but if you're interested, I would really love to add 5 years or more to your life, while also enhancing your energy/performance, even if the only reason to do so is to have more sex.
In addition to bringing the full lab set next week, I'm going to bring my intake interview form. Not sure how much time you'll have, but I've got plenty, should you want to come into practice.
If not, we will review labs anyway, of course.

See you soon,
P
