Good morning Jermaine,

Why not ask Hector directly? Omar is a sales and marketing person.

Good morning boss

I spoke to Omar of Choice yesterday afternoon again, to encourage him to give us the specifications on the model of the dragonwave and I strongly express the importance of the matter. He stated that he is still waiting on his technical support team to identify the correct model of the dragon wave.

'If the radios are too powerful they can burn out one another...'

I asked him to lean on his guys to get us the information ASAP to make the purchase.

I will continue to inquire about the dragonwaves until we have what we need to make the purchase.
