Hi Jeffrey let us know if you can attend

On Wednesday, April 11th, Emily Mortimer and Daniel Craig invite you to join Alessandro Nivola and Rachel Weisz at their very private screening for friends and family of Bleecker Street's DISOBEDIENCE. There is absolutely no press.

Please come to the Celeste Bartos Theater at the Museum of Modern Art for a 6:30pm screening and 8:30pm Q&A with Alessandro Nivola and Rachel Weisz, moderated by Hilton Als. A pasta supper celebration follows at Mozzarella & Vino. Other confirmed friends attending include Annette Bening, Paul Bettany, Jennifer Connelly, Hugo Guinness, Peter Hedges, Jeremy Irons, Barry Levinson, Kenneth Lonergan, Gugu Mbatha-Raw, Oren Moverman, Mira Nair, Steven Soderbergh, Michael Shannon, Zadie Smith, Martha Stewart, Julie Taymor, Naomi Watts, Jeffrey Wright and producer Frida Torresblanco.

DISOBEDIENCE was directed by Sebastian Lelio (this year's Oscar winner for A Fantastic Woman) and written by Lelio and Rebecca Lenkiewicz. The film is based on Naomi Alderman's book of the same title.

DISOBEDIENCE follows a rabbi's daughter (Rachel Weisz), living in New York and working as a photographer, as she returns to the Orthodox Jewish community in London that shunned her decades earlier for an attraction to a childhood friend (Rachel McAdams), who is married to a rabbi (Alessandro Nivola). Once back, their passions reignite as they explore the boundaries of faith and sexuality.

DISOBEDIENCE was shown at the Toronto Film Festival and received rave reviews for Alessandro Nivola, Rachel Weisz and Rachel McAdam's performances.

Please join Alessandro and Emily, and Rachel and Daniel for a really fun night.

xoxo,
Peggy
