Pagano may have worked with him briefly and you may have connected with him around an autistic child in Saudi Arabia or ? Through Elkus... But I don't recall exactly what bill said. Very out there "energy" work that focuses, to a large degree, on bacteria, virus', superbugs. There is no science that can explain to me how or why this would work, yet I am somehow effected by it. My MD had hit the wall on some of the persistent [REDACTED] and somehow, John Douglas' processes are making a difference. I feel the best I've felt in 20 years...

I'm at the Elkus' this weekend and John Douglas is here. My health is mostly recovered and I credit this - which is wild cause part of me finds this SO out there. So I mention this to no one really, but am so grateful to be feeling well again. John Douglas says hello to you. Bill Elkus also says "hello."

I'm in LA through New Year's Day.

Then to Dean Kamen's and NYC where I'll see you after the techie event in in town to attend.

Started working with UChicago on the Essential Self Tech RWJF grant. We'll see where that goes. Pschophysiology & tech.

In touch with Barnaby.

Still really enjoying Joi and the Media Lab.

Spending time in Raleigh, which, along with Boston (except winters) may become my east coast "home."

What's up with you, F?!

Happy holidays!
