Rich,
Appears Dave is charging $1,000 for Cancel flight days this year. along with his training days, as we have paid in the past.

On April 2nd, Dave and i airlined to STT for an afternoon departure, JE decided to depart the next morning, Dave charged $1,000 for that Day, instead of $500.
On Nov 28th, Dave shows up at airport at 4pm, for a trip to STT, weather was bad in STT and JE decided to depart the next morn, Dave spent 1 hour at the airport. charged $1,000 other Dates appear correct, many days of sitting for $1,000 / I have Dave at $144k plus $13,500 airline days, total to Date 12/2/2015 $157,500.00

Rich
How much did we pay Bill Hammond, does it make sense to give more contract Flying days to Bill Hammond, and lower Dave's?
this would allow me to have B727 covered when JE wants to fly, Currently JE is trying to decide whether he will allow more flying for Bill, so he doesn't take another Job offer that was presented in Eclpise Jet.
If we Take $157,500 Dave made in 2015 and Bill Hammond earnings in 2015, split it between Dave and Bill for earning, this will give me two guys for the price of One? and gives me a full crew for the B727 when needed., just a thought.
Not sure why Dave highlights weekend Days he works on his spread sheet, maybe we should give him weekends off as well? don't forget, he's a banker, not a pilot.
thoughts?

thx,
Larry

Hi Rich,

Attached are my 2015 work days through December 2, 2015. I would prefer to receive the payment next month in 2016.
Have a happy holiday season!

Dave Rodgers
