The Apple TV is going on sale on Monday, shipping is expected that Friday (assuming we get our order in before they sell out).

I surveyed the house managers and heard back from everyone (except Valdson):

71st

There are two AppleTVs @ 71st, on the 6th floor and in the Gym. The setup in the gym won't work with the new Apple TV — the TV & receiver are a proprietary setup from Sony, that can't get audio from the new AppleTV. We'll need to upgrade the whole system to work with the new □tv.

I'd told Jeffrey that it was likely we'd have to upgrade some of the systems to support the new AppleTV, and he said "upgrade everything." Luckily, the 71st Gym is the only one that needs an upgrade — so we just need a confirmation that he wants that setup updated.

Palm Beach

Janusz says there are only two there: "One in master bedroom and another in breakfast room"

LSJ

Jermaine counts 4 on the island, he didn't specify where they were.

Ranch

Brice counts 5: "movie room, breakfast room, master bedroom, lodge, living room"

Paris

As I said, Valdson didn't reply, but I know we ordered that big Epson 4K projector for there, and that will definitely work with the new □tv.

+1 for [REDACTED]

My count says 15, unless he wants to add a third to PB that I don't know about.

I'd like to have them all shipped here so I can set them all up + log them in with his accounts (so he'll have access to the same content where ever he is) and then ship them out to the house managers who will just need to plug them in. I'd like to also order an extra remote for each house.

Please advise....
