Hi Jeffrey,

Noam is better today. So, the meeting on Friday seems OK. Just think that this time should be something lighter, with you and Martin, as this way it would be relaxing to him.

I think it is a great idea, but I think it is better if you come alone on Friday or postpone, because I think Noam really needs some rest.

I am not allowing him to go to MIT today.

you can always share with me. of course. What i am hoping to do is get some young energetic people to come onboard your institute project. It takes internet expertise etc. As he is able to excite them, i can pay, and you can follow through. I will follow your lead. tell me what you suggest. does sat work? should I come alone fri. or would you prefer to wait until a few weeks from now. hope you dont get a cold

Hi Jeffrey,

I think Noam is getting in one of those periods of overdoing, what usually results in very bad colds, that he hasn't had for the last three years, not coincidentally since I came and have been forcing him to slow down "just a little". But the last weeks have been too intense.

On Friday, he will be coming from a solid day of appointments and I am afraid it can be too exhausting for him. It would be better to have a more relaxing time with you and Martin and leave this discussion for another occasion.

I know I can share my concerns with you.
