i flew yesterday LAX to JFK

i had to cancel what would have been a most enjoyable evening with Gordon, watching the college basketball finals at dinner with several of his friends after meeting him privately at 4:30 but i just wanted to get the hell out of California and get back to family for Easter if i were to see you in NYC in the morning it would have to be

Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday of this week as i have key medical appointments in Jersey on Thursday and Friday and leave out Monday a week from tomorrow via Amtrak for D.C. and Richmond to see my 19-year-old son graduate from his next stage in the U.S. army, then straight to Jamaica so there is a good chance your schedule does not permit a visit—but as you have made clear and is obvious—we do not need to meet in person to run things i don't want to be located ANYWHERE in academia—too much time wasted, leaving aside the absurd abuse i was just subjected to— so i will shortly send your man a full accounting of the $30,000 your Foundation kindly gave mine ~August of 2017 we can then take it from there—roughly the same amount or perhaps slightly more will keep my research and book writing on schedule while productivity and speaking fees should take care of the rest of my life, so i do not have to draw down more than the Federal minimum of 5% of my inheritance and can keep it intact in haste—hope things are fine your end
