Dear Jeffrey,

I am in Santa Fe too, although next week I have to go back to DC for a review meeting. How about the week after?

I walked past your office in Cambridge last week and was thinking about your questions about life. I have been working on a project about how life might spontaneously arise. Plus this morning I went for a run in the Eldorado wilderness and could see your house, perched on the horizon. Probably you know the joke:

Jesus is on the cross and Mary Magdelene is kneeling down below

Jesus: (moaning) Mary . . .

Mary: Yes lord?

Jesus: (moans) Mary . . .

Mary: Yes lord. What is it lord?

Jesus: Mary, I can see your house from here.

Hoping it works out to get together.

Yours,
Seth
