As per conversation with the French consulate there is no minimum balance required for travel, for details they directed to the website. Copy from the website below.

FINANCIAL GARANTEES (+ 1 copy),

Proof that you have at least 100 U.S.Dollars per day for each day you will stay in the Schengen countries.

To be submitted in the following forms:

1) an up-to-date letter from your employer in the U.S.A mentioning your annual salary, stating that your requested time of absence has been approved and confirming your continued employment on your return (+ 1 copy)

2) AND your last 3 paystubs (+ 1 copy)

3) AND your last 3 monthly bank statements in US currency Internet printed copies are not accepted (+ 1 copy)

°°°° if your financial means are not sufficient, you may also provide a notarized letter from your sponsor stating he/she will be responsible for all your expenses and a proof of his/her financial means (+ 1 copy).

//////NB///// If you are a business owner: provide instead - your business permit, license or registration AND your last tax returns (first 5 pages) AND your last 3 monthly bank statements in US currency and not a summary Internet printed copies are not accepted (+ 1 copy)

As per website it is required to have minimum of $100 per day. Please advise what amount should i wire to [REDACTED]

1. $1200
2. $2000
3. $3000
4. Other amounts.

Thank you,
Bella

To: Jeffrey Epstein <[REDACTED]>

hello Jeffrey.

next thursday august 6th i have an appointment at the french embassy at 10am .

I'm worry that i have to show them my financial statement that i have enough money to support myself for the trip etc .

but i don't have it .

do You think its going to be fine or not ?
