I took you shopping . you ASKED for shoes. , you ASKED in bon marche can i have either the orange or tan toodd i said of course both , you ASKED in hermes if you could have a belt. I said of course yes . I asked you to help with frames pens and rugs at the house , you said you would. but..... when i left to see gromov, I gave you my card , and said you could get what you had wanted, sometime after that you made a decision, a terrible one. i returned from my meeting , and we spent time together. only the next morning , the next mornig did i see the bracelet , and asked you what is that? , , i asked you how much did you spend Yesterday, you said around ten thousand . I told you i thought that was equivablet to stealing as you had asked for shoes and a belt but bought other things without asking all you had to do i said was call me and ask, . you tried initially to defend the bracelet as . well you said get what you want. but later admitted that when you bought it you knew it was wrong, , when you didn't tell me you knew it was wrong, but did it anyway. having spent an additional ten thousand dollars ,WITHOUT ASKING, not once. you made no mention of it , up until yesterday, none. when bella asked if the charges were right. I trusted you, a lot.
