I will call her and then send her any list of lawyers when its compiled. Either the Govt is planning a reconsideration motion or intending (even better if its done quickly) to invite the victim/witness lawyers to intervene or both

A call from marie to [REDACTED] precipitated the victim atty list issue. I had raised the same issue with Dexter Lee last week hoping to precipitate a reconsideration motion from perspective of privacy rights of other witnesses who didn't wish to be involved in (and to risk broadening) the CVRA and he had similar concerns.

Today at 1:17 PM

I just took a call from Marie Villafaña. She asked me if I had read the order that came out about two weeks ago and I said yes. She said she is working on the disclosures required by the order.
She said 'the thing that is giving us some heartburn over here is turning over the list of the names of the victims, because we just don't think we should be doing that
